פרשת נשא

At the end of the פרשה, the תורה lists the קרבנות of every נשיא. All the קרבנות were exactly the same. The question is why the תורה said all of them.

Why couldn't it just say the list of all the קרבנות and write every נשיא brought those קרבנות without repeating the list 12 times?

The תורה says that the reason is, because each נשיא did not bring the קרבן because he was jealous and wanted to be like his friend, he brought it because he himself wanted to bring it on his own.

Therefore the תורה found it worthy of mentioning every single נשיא with their קרבנות even though they were the same.

The lesson the תורה is teaching us is even when one does a מצוה as part of a group for example davening in shul or learning together with other people ה' values each and every individuals' own learning as if it was done separately.

Have a great Shabbos!
