This week at Cheder Miami, our nursery students explored the letter ב and the word "בית," sharing about their homes and through hands-on building projects. In afternoon nursery, we focused on the letter G and the number 6, strengthening early literacy skills through sound recognition and interactive activities.

Tuesday morning, May 5th there will be a special Lag Baomer activity for Cheder talmidim.

In addition, Monday night, May 4th everyone is invited for a Lag Baomer Community event (See Flyer Attached!)

This week in Nursery...

Dear Parents,

This week we continued learning about the letter Beis and focused on the word “bayis” (house). We had many meaningful and fun conversations about our homes, what they look like, what each child’s favorite part of their house is, and what makes their house special. Each child had the wonderful opportunity to share their thoughts with the class.

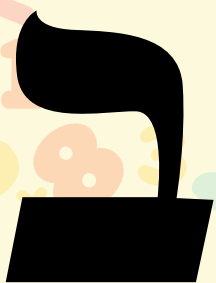

We also explored our learning through hands-on activities! The children created their own creative houses using magnetic tiles, blocks, and Legos. Their imagination is truly amazing to see.

In afternoon nursery, we are continuing our letter and number learning by focusing on the letter G and the number 6. It has been so exciting to watch the children think of words that match the sounds of the letters we are learning. They came up with wonderful words for the letter F, including flashlight, french fries, far, fish, and fingers, and we are looking forward to seeing what words they will think of for the letter G. During circle time, we are learning about the days of the week, along with important time-related words like today, yesterday, and tomorrow.

We also made a special letter G fridge magnet that the children colored, cut, and decorated all by themselves.

We are so excited for you to see all of their beautiful projects! We encourage you to look over them together with your children to help reinforce what they are learning in school and to bring their learning home.

Wishing everyone a wonderful Shabbos!

My brother asked us to join him at his son's cheder Lag BaOmer party. I would love to brother a reason for not coming, I know he'll be insulted. Am I allowed to tell him that the music's too loud?

—Binyomin

What's the Psak?

Do you know the halachah?

A No—
it's loshon hora about the band.

B Yes—
otherwise your brother will be upset with you.

C No—
it's better to make up an excuse and say you have another commitment.

You Don't Have to Like It

Loshon hora is when one says something that creates a bad impression of others or causes them harm or loss.¹ Loud music is not something that is objectively bad. Some people like it, and others don't. It may even depend on your age and stage.

Therefore, Binyomin can say the music is too loud without painting a bad picture of the band. An even better way to make the point is to say, "The music is too loud for me," which identifies his comment as a matter of personal taste.

Even though it is sometimes permitted to lie, that is only a last resort in order to preserve shalom between people. But in this case it is not necessary.²

Answer: The halachah is B.
